Hear Ye! Hear Ye!

Announcing the Eighth Annual Elizabethan Madrigal Feaste!!!
Featuring Harpist, Erin Hoiland

Proclamation from the Lord and Ladye of the Manor: At this year's Elizabethan Madrigal Feaste, we are proud to feature a traveling troubadour that truly produces heavenly sounds, and is rarely heard in these provinces. To hear a harp player, peasants in our land usually have to travel days (by horse), but this year, a harp player will be coming to our land! Harpist, Erin Hoiland, will be traveling to our dinners from a university named Augustana in the foreign land of South Dakota (and it is difficult to ride a horse and carry a harp at the same time!)

Erin will be traveling to Iowa Lakes with a lever harp, which is about five and a half feet tall. It is smaller than a pedal harp, but much bigger than a lap harp. Erin is excited to be invited by the Lord of the castle to play at our feaste. She states: "I get so much joy and happiness being able to play such a beautiful and elegant instrument. Being able to share that gift with others is truly a blessing." Erin says "her love for the harp grows more and more each day she plays it."

Iowa Lakes will present its Eighth Annual "Elizabethan Madrigal Feaste" Saturday, December 8th and Sunday, December 9th in the Great Crown Hall (our Student Center - Sir Maximus) at half past six in the evening on the Estherville Campus.

Put aside the routine of daily life and treat yourself like Royalty by indulging in a delicious five course meal fit for a King (or a Queen!). While you are dining in high Renaissance style, marvel and enjoy our audience-oriented performances by the Royal Iowa Lakes Chamber Singers and My Lady of the Lakers Hand Bell Ringers.

Along with many English customs such as the procession of the Boar's Head, our Jester, flaming pudding, and the strolling carolers; the evening also includes wassail, and a special Royal Dessert. Renaissance costumes will be worn by the performers, but are optional to our guests.

Lo! Ticket Information: $20 per person payable to Lady Visa, Master Card, or even Sir Columbus' Discover. Please make your Cheque payable to Iowa Lakes Community College Music Department. Reserve without delay to assure your place with our cheery troupe, as seating is limited!

Mind Ye! Ticket reservations must be received by November 30, 2007, with payment enclosed. Credit Card reservations may be made by phone. There will be no refunds after this date.

Hark! If you have any questions, please call 1-800-242-5106, ext. 7972, 712-362-7972 or visit our website at www.iowalakes.edu/music. You don't want to miss this rare opportunity to hear a fabulous harp player! Renew your Christmas spirit and relish in the peaceful sound of harpist, Erin Hoiland.

2007 Iowa Collegiate All-Star Concert Band

Iowa Lakes Community College is pleased to announce the selection of Heidi Geiger, tenor sax; Phil Becker, trumpet; and Michael Wilbur, euphonium, to the 14th Annual Iowa Collegiate All-Star Concert Band. The 105-piece band consists of musicians from 17 Iowa community colleges, four-year colleges and universities. The Collegiate All-Star Concert Band will perform in C.Y. Stephen's Auditorium at Iowa State University on Saturday, November 17, 2007 at 2:30 p.m. The concert is in conjunction with the Iowa Music Educators Association.

Heidi is a Criminal Justice/Law Enforcement major from Akron, IA; Phil is an Aviation major from Storm Lake, IA; and Michael Wilbur, Ruthven, IA, is seeking an AA degree.

Music Club Fundraiser

The Iowa Lakes Community College Music Club is selling a Hy-Vee discount card as their fund raiser. The profits received will be used to fund club activities and cultural trips. The discount card sells for $15 and has a value of $122. Discount cards may be purchased from Music Club students or stop and see Judy at the Estherville Business Office.

Winter Recital

Iowa Lakes will be featuring its many talented soloists at the Winter Recital, December 12th at 2:00 p.m. The recital will be held at the Estherville campus in room 60. The soloists have been working all semester with our saxophone, guitar, piano, and voice lesson faculty in preparation for the recital. All students attending Iowa Lakes have the opportunity to receive music lessons from our private music instructors: Carol Ayres, Nancy Batz, Brett Fuelberth, Gary Lambert, Arnie Schilling, and Tom Spalding. The recital is free and everyone is invited to attend.

Spring Musical Announced!!!

If you thought you knew the story of "The Princess and The Pea," you may be in for a walloping surprise! Did you know, for instance, the princess actually swam the moat to reach the prince? Or, in fact, it wasn't the pea at all that caused the princess a sleepless night? "Once Upon A Mattress" is carried on a wave of wonderful songs, turns hilarious and raucous, romantic and melodic; this rollicking spin on the familiar classic of royal courtship and comeuppance provides for some side-splitting shenanigans. Chances are you'll never look at fairy tales the same way again. Please join us for auditions on February 3, 4, and 5, 2008, and make plans to attend our production on April 3, 4, and 5, 2008!!

"Once Upon A Mattress" has music by MARY RODGERS; lyrics by MARSHALL BARER; and book by JAY THOMPSON, DEAN FULLER and MARSHALL BARER. "Once Upon A Mattress" is presented through special arrangement with R & H Theatricals, 1065 Avenue of The Americas, Suite 2400, New York, NY 10018. www.rnhtheatricals.com.

Jazz Band Contest and Show/Jazz Choir Festival

Once the New Year begins, thousands of students will flock to Iowa Lakes Community College for five days of excellent performances and feedback from experienced judges. On January 15th-17th, jazz bands will be competing in the Jazz Band Contest. January 22nd-23rd, show and jazz choirs will be performing & working with clinicians in our educational Show/Jazz Choir Festival. The public is invited. There is no admission fee. Please check our website for the specific schedule of high school groups. Music directors who would like to have their groups participate can register their groups at www.iowalakes.edu/music.
